

DEWEY H SCRUGGS
AUGUST 20, 2003

19

CLAIMS:

- (A) A method of table hockey that offers a closer resemblance and actions to the sport of ice/roller hockey.
- (B) Increases the number of players up to 8 (2 teams) of 4 each at the same time on a single table.
- (C) Breaks playing area up into separate fields of play using a physical divider.
- (D) Pass through provided for movement of the puck between fields.
- (E) System maintains one on one competition between the same players at all times.
- (F) An alpha numeric numbering system for game operation and identifies specific location on apparatus.
- (G) Operational procedures designed specifically for this invention and apparatus.
- (H) Players sticks designed specifically for this game and apparatus.
- (I) Rules for officiating the game.
- (J) PENALTIES to be applied when the infraction of a rule occurs.